2. Use observation and experiments to investigate animal behavior
3. Use quantitative methods to describe and analyze data
4. Locate and evaluate scientific literature
5. Communicate science in both written and oral formats
6. Work in groups to design, conduct and interpret scientific studies

Attendance & Field Trips: Classes will take place on NJIT campus unless otherwise indicated - meet in CKB 328. Transportation for field trips is provided. We will meet at the Science and Technology Garage (STG) at 1pm on days with field trips - due to time limitations, punctuality is essential.

Required Course Materials:

- Pencil & eraser - you will sometimes be taking notes or collecting data on paper
- Research notebook (physical or digital)– something to take notes with whether you are in the field or the lab
- Laptop or tablet. Some classes will require the use of a laptop or tablet. There are classroom computers for use as well.

Student Services and Inclusion Statement

NJIT Non-discrimination Policy New Jersey Institute of Technology reaffirms its commitment to a policy of non-discrimination on the basis of race, sex, sexual orientation, age, religion, ethnic origin, handicap or veterans' status in its employment policies, educational programs and activities under university control.

In this course, each person in the class is an integral part of the class and has something of value to contribute. I strive to promote an inclusive environment in my classes and I expect all participants in the class to be respectful of others' perspectives and opinions whenever engaging in the course.

Mental, emotional and physical health can have a large impact on learning and so I also strongly encourage students to utilize all campus resources as needed. I am here to help facilitate your learning and so please let me know about course concerns as soon as possible so I can help resolve them.

Please see the last page of this syllabus for student support services available at NJIT.

Communication with instructor

- In-person communication during class and office hours and Canvas message app are the preferred forms of communication. If you do talk to me before/during/after class asking me to do a task, please send a follow-up email through the Canvas message app. You can email me directly as well, but I may respond more slowly. When emailing me through the Canvas app or directly please indicate your full name and the course you are in as part of the email subject line. I will be checking the Canvas messaging app and my email regularly throughout the work week during normal business hours. Outside of these times I will respond to messages and emails as soon as possible, but do not expect an immediate reply.
- Office hours: Office hours are open times when you can come discuss with me any questions or concerns you have about the course or course material. Office hours will be held each week at the regularly scheduled times. You can visit my office or attend via zoom – use the Office Hours zoom link posted to canvas. You DO NOT need an appointment to attend office hours. If you are attending online you may need to get my attention when you show up so I know you are there.
- Appointments: I am always happy to make an appointment with a student. Ideally appointments should be made in advance. To schedule an appointment, you should message me through the Canvas app – be sure to include your name, the class you are in, and the times you are available to meet in your message.

Course Policies:

- Safety Requirements: Compliance all university and class safety policies is required whether we are in the lab or on a field trip. For field trips, wear clothes that are comfortable and that can potentially get dirty. You will want to dress appropriately for the weather, a sunhat and sunscreen are recommended. You will also need to bring your own water and snacks as not all locations will have these available. Avoid touching or getting too close to wild animals.
- Sharing Materials: All course materials (including recordings of lectures) are for students' own use only (no sharing or posting anywhere).
- Technology policy: Cell phones and computers are allowed in the classroom to facilitate note-taking and to complete labs - but all alerts/ringtones should be silenced. Everyone should refrain from using your devices for non-class related purposes. If they become a distraction you will be asked to put them away. To minimize distractions, I recommend turning off all notifications or using airplane mode while in class. If you must answer a phone call, step outside the classroom before answering.
- Academic Dishonesty: Academic Integrity is the cornerstone of higher education and is central to the ideals of this course and the university. Cheating is strictly prohibited and devalues the degree that you are working on. As a member of the NJIT community, it is your responsibility to protect your educational investment by knowing and following the academic code of integrity policy that is found at: NJIT Academic Integrity Code. Please note that it is my professional obligation and responsibility to report any academic misconduct to the Dean of Students Office. Any student found in violation of the code by cheating, plagiarizing or using any online software inappropriately will result in disciplinary action. This may include a failing grade of F, and/or suspension or dismissal from the university. If you have any questions about the code of Academic Integrity, please contact the Dean of Students Office at dos@njit.edu.
- Artificial Intelligence (AI): This course expects students to work without artificial intelligence (AI) assistance unless specifically stated in the directions of an assignment. For assignments in which AI use is permitted, the AI must be cited as is shown within the NJIT Library AI citation page for AI. If you have any questions or concerns about AI technology use in this class, please reach out to your instructor prior to submitting any assignments.

Grades and Assessments:

Grading Policy: Grades will be determined by performance on the assessments found in the table below. More detailed descriptions of each assessment follow the table.

Assessments & Point Values	% Grade
Preparation and Participation (65 pts)	18.6%
Post Lab Assignments + Group Evaluation (110 points)	31.4%
Independent Research Project (125 pts)	35.7%
Final Exam (50 pts)	14.3%
Total (350 pts)	100%

Assessment Descriptions:

Preparation and Participation: For each day of class, you will need to come to the lab prepared, having gone over the required materials BEFORE class. This will be assessed at the beginning of each class. In addition you are expected to arrive on time and participate fully in class activities. You will submit in-class work to the course google folder (link posted to the course canvas page). Failure to do these things will result in a loss of points for that day. Your lowest grade of the semester will be dropped.

Post-Lab Assignments: For each of the labs you will complete a post-lab assignment which will require additional analysis and discussion of results – each worth 10 points. Many labs will have components to be completed in groups and at the end of the semester you will complete an evaluation of your group-mates. This evaluation will be worth 20% of the possible Post Lab points (100 pts) score will be an average of your self-evaluation and your group-mates evaluation of you.

Independent Research Project & Formal Lab Report: Each student will design and implement an independent research project on animal behavior. This project will require the development of a research question and project. You will first write up and present a project proposal in order to gain instructor approval (30 pts). Upon receiving approval, you will be provided with class time to complete your research. Completing the project without approval by the instructor will result in a 10% deduction to your total Independent Project score. After implementation of the research project, you will analyze your data (15 pts) and write up a formal lab report describing the project and its results (50 pts). The formal lab report will require a draft to be submitted (worth 10% of grade) and you will receive feedback on this draft before submitting the final document. You will also share your results with your peers in a poster presentation session (25 pts). The entire project will be completed in collaboration with the instructor with guidance and feedback available at all stages.

Final Exam: Students will complete a final exam that will focus primarily on the content and skills practiced throughout the semester. Further details about the exam will be communicated with you in advance in class and through emails. Details will also be posted to Canvas.

Your final grade will be determined by dividing the points you have earned by the total points shown in the table to the right and applying it to the grading scale found in the table above. Your grades will be posted to the course website so you can keep track of your progress in the course.

Letter Grade	Percentage
A	90 – 100
B+	85 – 89
B	80 – 85
C+	75 – 80
C	70– 75
D	60-70
F	0 – 60

Attendance, Late Work & Make Up Exam: Attendance is mandatory. Labs missed cannot be made-up but can be excused with documentation. However, missing more than three labs will result in an F in the course. The final exam cannot be completed late without documentation of an excusable absence. Please submit documentation for excused absences of any kind to the Office of the Dean of Students. Late work is accepted with a 10% deduction per day.

*Note: this is a tentative schedule, any changes will be posted to the course website. Bold indicates an assignment that is part of your Independent Project. All assignments are due by Monday night at 11:59pm unless otherwise noted. Dates with * indicate field trips.*
